IIM Udaipur's Consumer Culture Lab publishes a unique report: Rangbhoomi

The Consumer Culture Lab (IIM Udaipur) is delighted to announce the launching of its report Rangbhoomi: A journey through the Digital Heartlands of India.

India is in the middle of a technological revolution. India's digital economy is exploding with over 750 million smartphone users, low data costs, and infrastructures such as Unified Payments Interface. This phenomenon is not just limited to the urban metros but has percolated to India's heartlands, resulting in major developments in this space. Throughout 2022, the Consumer Culture Lab sought to explore this phenomenon in India's small towns and rural heartlands. The findings from the research have been published in the report.

Photo Corner

IIM Udaipur is well on its way to becoming a globally recognised B-School. It has broken new ground by focusing on world-class research and transforming students into tomorrow's managers and leaders. The Institute arrived on the global education stage by securing accreditation from the AACSB (Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business) in merely eight years of its establishment. With this accreditation, IIM Udaipur is counted in the same league of global institutes such as Harvard Business School, Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania, and the MIT Sloan School. IIMU has been listed on the Financial Times (FT) Global MIM Ranking 2022 as well as the QS Global MIM Ranking 2020. IIMU is only the 4th IIM, along with IIMs Ahmedabad, Calcutta, and Bangalore, to be in the FT Global MIM Ranking and only the 7th IIM in the QS 2021 Global MIM Rankings. In both Rankings, IIM Udaipur is the youngest B-School in the world! IIMU is also currently ranked 4th in India, after ISB, IIM Ahmedabad and IIM Bangalore, for research in management according to the methodology used by UT Dallas, which tracks publications in the leading global journals.
